

First Baptist Church Supported Missionaries

Boyd

Shawn & Laura
(Savannah, Donovan, Brooklyn)

After being overseas for many years, the Boyds are serving stateside in North Carolina for TransWorld Radio.

Halili

Dorian & Sabina
(Andrea, Bora)

Dorian & Sabina are helping grow the national Cru staff in Albania, once very few to many in recent years! Their leadership there is unmatched.

Hoover

Caleb & Jenny
(Lily, Josiah)

The Hoovers have served with Cru for 12 years and are currently on campus at NIU to provide leadership and direction to the movement.

Klockenga

Matt & Ashley
(Gracie, Emma, Ava, Ellie)

Serving with To Every Tribe, the Klockengas seek to make Christ known where the Gospel is not yet established in a native-led, local church in Cat Lake, Ontario.

Mueller

Ken & Mary

Ken & Mary served in Brazil for much of their married life as Bible translators in the Portuguese language. They currently reside in Minnesota and continue their translation work during their retirement.

Seghers

Greg & Carlene

The Seghers serve in the role of Field Director in South Africa, leading Zion Bible School classes, small groups and many other outreach activities. Greg and Carlene serve with ZEMA (Zion Evangelical Ministries of Africa).

Simon

Jeff & Greta

Jeff & Greta have spent many years ministering to refugees, primarily of a Muslim background, in Europe and are currently based in Greece.

Stuart

Jason
(Ella Jo, Jedidiah)

Jason has served with New Tribes Missions for over 20 years in Papua New Guinea, working primarily on Bible translation for the native communities.

Thomas

Bruce & Linda

Bruce & Linda teach English as a second language to adults and teens at the local language school, which their church developed. They are also involved in a number of outreach activities.

First Baptist Church Supported Missionaries

Tran

Phong

Phong serves on the NIU campus with Cru. He offers a unique perspective as an ethnic minority, and is the only Midwest Cru staff member who is not Caucasian. He sees this as a valuable connection piece for minority students.

Wohlegmut

Josh & Christy
(Jack, Sam, Micah)

In Cote d'Ivoire, Josh serves through tech support to the local hospital and nearby missionaries, while Christy works as a nurse and trains other nurses.

Vanderkooi

Mark & Diane
(Sylvie)

Mark & Diane have served with TEAM in Chad, Africa for more than 25 years. Their areas of ministry include, bible translation, running a radio station, building a health clinic, and a number of other ministries in order to spread the Gospel.

Neighbors' House

DeKalb County
Anna Scott, Director

Neighbors' House is a not-for-profit, faith-based, community development organization partnering with DeKalb County students and families to help them fulfill their God-given potential for academic and relational success.

Network of Nations

Northern Illinois University campus
Lisa Diedrich, Director

Network of Nations is a non-profit organization that is building bridges of love and friendship between international students and the community.